

IMPROVEMENTS BEFORE COUNCIL

Number of Petitions Approved and Plans Made For Street Oiling at Tuesday Night Session

BUILDING ORDINANCE PASSED

Bids Are Received for Coal Bunkers at City Plant and Contract Will be Awarded Tonight

A variety of business, including the adoption of several resolutions, passing of an ordinance, granting of several petitions for proposed improvements, receiving of bids for a coal bunker and other things, prevailed at the regular session of the city council Tuesday night.

The improvement petitions were all granted, including the petition of Dr. P. H. Chadwick and George Harrell for the opening of North Willow street, from the Pennsylvania railroad, north to Tenth, which was declared opened last fall, and which will now be made with curb and gutter and an improved street.

The petition signed by Alfred Mallock, et al., for the improvement of North Oliver street, from Ninth to Eleventh, with a good street, curb and gutter was also granted; and also a petition for sidewalk, curb and gutter in West Eleventh from Oliver to Spencer street, on the south side of the street.

Councilman Brann brought up the subject of city firemen wearing uniforms, and he stated that the council had previously endorsed the plan, but only three members had complied. He made a motion that the order be compulsory, and it was passed to that effect, making it necessary for firemen to wear uniform hats, badges and clothing during most of the daytime, and following their regular clean-up duties around the fire station.

Two bids were received for the coal bunkers for the city water and light plant, one being from the Green Engineering Company, East Chicago, for the amount of $3,805; the other submitted by the Allen-Sherman-Hoff Company, Philadelphia, for $2,880. The two firms were given a half hour each to present their machinery with blue prints and plans, and the councilmen will meet tonight to award the contract to one of them.

The councilmen passed a resolution endorsing the plan of the Main Street Christian church in extending an invitation to the State Convention.

DEMANDS ACTION ON LAWLESSNESS CHARGE

"Citizens Committee" On Pacific Coast Seeks Investigation Of Mrs. Poindexter's Accusations

LAW MAKERS, LAW BREAKERS

(By United Press)
Spokane, Washington, April 4.—"We cannot enforce the laws when our law makers are law breakers."

This was the slogan of the "citizens committee" who canvassed the Pacific coast towns today for a million signatures to petition demanding federal action on recent charges of Mrs. Elizabeth Poindexter, wife of the former senator that congressmen off duty violated their own laws.

Religious and civic organizations were asked to join in the demand for a grand jury investigation of alleged lawlessness of government officials and employees, following accusation of Mrs. Poindexter that liquor and gambling parties played a prominent part in the social life at the national capital.

Headed by H. C. Harris, one of the campaign managers of Frank W. Dill, democrat, who defeated Poindexter in the senatorial race last November, the committee hoped to get a million signatures to the petition to be presented to Attorney General Daugherty with the demand for immediate action.

The cost of the campaign is being defrayed by private subscriptions.

TWO SEEKING

Albert Nipp and Russell Taylor Sentenced Here For Store Breaking

In the list of 50 petitions for clemency filed today in Indianapolis with the state board of pardons, appears two prisoners sentenced from Rush county, September 5, last year. They are Albert Nipp and Russell Taylor, each sentenced for 1 to 14 years for store breaking. They are residents of Henry county, and will be recalled as having been implicated in the robbery of a store at Nipp's mill, when four were arrested. The two others were given suspended sentences.

William Moore, of Carthage, serving a term of ten to 20 years for burglary, was denied a petition for clemency, and will have to serve longer before the board hears his plea.

DR. FRED A. COOK STICKS TO SHIP

Former Explorer Goes Ahead With Plans Though Accused Of Using Mails To Defraud

ASSOCIATES BACK OF HIM

Declare He Is No "Quitter" And Urge Thousands Of Shareholders To Keep The Faith

(By United Press)

Fort Worth, Tex., April 4.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, a former explorer and president of the Petroleum Producers' Association, went ahead today with plans to make fortunes for his stock holders, although federal investigators accuse him of using the mails to defraud in connection with his oil operations.

Dr. Cook's associates in the oil stock business declared the former explorer is "no quitter" and the thousands of shareholders in the Petroleum association, in all sections of the country have but to keep faith and they will come out on top of the scramble for profits from the "black gold" in the Texas oil fields.

Five officials of the Petroleum Producers Association, including Cook, are under heavy bonds charged with using the mails to defraud in the sale of oil stocks. Other promoters of alleged fake oil companies here were arrested at the same time.

Cook's present company is the fourth he has promoted here and his arrest by federal operatives yesterday was the culmination of a checkered career in adventure and high finance.

The self-styled discoverer of the North Pole has successively headed the Texas Eagle Producing and Refining Company, the Texas Eagle Oil and Refining Company and the Texas Eagle Oil company. The evolution of these three Eagles was marked by increases in capitalization from $300,000 to $2,600,000 and later to $5,000,000.

Each enterprise failed in its return and is now defunct. When he launched the Petroleum Producers Association, Cook announced the capitalization would always be the amount of stock outstanding. Including the subsidiary oil companies it has taken over that capitalization (Continued on Page 6)

DISSENTION MARKS ACTION

Committee Of State Officers Appraises Submerged Lake County Land

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4.—Dissention marked the approval today of the appraised valuation of $350 an acre for the 232 acres of submerged Lake county land lying in the bed of Lake George, by a committee composed of Governor McCray, Ora Davis, state treasurer, and George M. Cheney, clerk, in the office of the state auditor. Robert Bracken, auditor was absent on account of illness.

Cheney voting for Bracken, opposed the appraisal on the ground that the land at present is appraised for taxation at $900 an acre. Bracken said the entire tract should have been appraised at $350,000 or about $1,240 an acre.

FRANKLIN COUNTY CLASS JOINS HERE

First Rush County Company Of National Horse Thief Detective Association Grows Fast

IT NOW HAS 238 MEMBERS

With First Aim Accomplished, Association Directs Activities To Suppress Lawlessness

The National Horse Thief Detective association, which has been enjoying an unusually large growth in Rush county in recent months, as well as in other counties of Indiana, has acquired a wide reputation in the campaign that is being carried on by citizens to aid officials in putting down lawlessness.

The first Rush county company—No. 190—which was organized here February 15, 1913, was one of the first in the state after the national association was formed in northern Indiana, and it now has 238 members.

This number will be increased tonight when a large class of candidates from Franklin county will be initiated at the court house. Initiations generally take place at the regular monthly meetings, which are held the first Saturday of each month, but a special meeting will be held tonight for the accommodation of the Franklin county candidates, who could not attend the regular meeting next Saturday afternoon.

Company No. 190 already has a large membership in Franklin county and it is said that members of the organization have been instrumental in aiding the Franklin county officials in suppressing the illegal liquor traffic there recently.

Company No. 190, after being organized here in February, 1913, became a legal organization when articles of incorporation were filed at the recorder's office here March 22, 1913 and two days later at the secretary of state's office in Indianapolis.

Within the past year, companies have been organized at New Salem and Milroy, Northern Rush county farmers belong to the company known as the Henry and Rush county Horse Thief Detective association. There are few meetings of the Rush county board of commissioners that constables are not appointed on recommendation of one of the Rush county companies.

The national association was first formed to combat horse stealing and other petty thieving in rural communities. The banding together of farmers for their protection was so successful that when horse thieving ceased to be an evil and automobiles came into general use, the association turned its activities to automobile thieves. More recently, the association has been directing its activities in the suppression of lawlessness in all forms.

After the national association had (Continued on Page Four)

ALLEN BELL DIES NORTH OF ORANGE

Influenza Complicated by Pneumonia Causes Death of Farmer Living in Community 15 Years

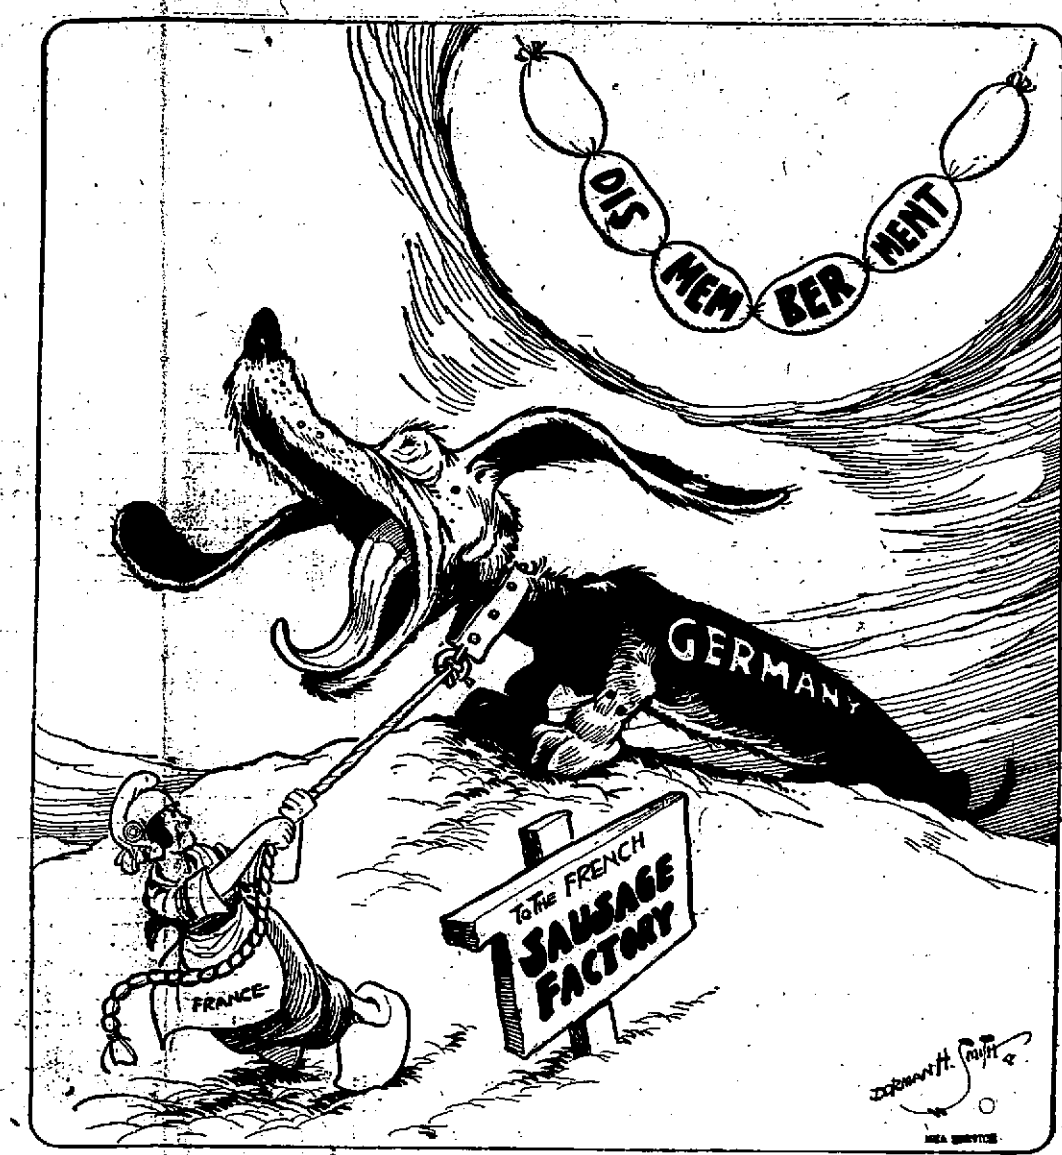

WAS BORN IN FRANKFORT, KY.

Allen Bell, aged 68 years, expired at the late residence north of Orange, Tuesday morning at five o'clock following a three weeks illness of influenza. Mr. Bell had been critically ill for the past two weeks, pneumonia having developed.

The deceased was born and reared in Frankfort, Kentucky, and about fifteen years ago moved to the Orange vicinity and at the time of his death was living on the Ellis Culbertson farm near Orange.

The survivors are the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Anna Judy of Greensburg and Mrs. Kate Dickerson of Connorsville; one son, Jesse Bell living west of Glenwood, one sister and two brothers living in Kentucky. The body will be taken to Frankfort, Kentucky, Thursday morning where the funeral services will be held and burial will take place in a cemetery there.

ELECTED HEAD OF REBEKAH LODGES

Miss Louise Briggeman of Blue Ridge Is Selected President of District Organization

OTHER OFFICERS ELECTED

Meeting Closes Here Tuesday Night With Program and Initiation by Combined Degree Staff

The district meeting of the Rebekah Lodges comprising fifteen lodges in Rush, Decatur and Shelby counties, came to a close here Tuesday night, and the convention went on record as being one of the best held. Miss Louise Briggeman of Blue Ridge was elected president to succeed Mrs. Edna Dagler of this city, and Waldron was selected for the next meeting, October 16.

Miss Briggeman was formerly vice president, and other officers of the district were elected as follows: Mrs. Mollie Phares, Greensburg, vice president; Mrs. Lulu Latshaw, Shelbyville, secretary; and Mrs. Erabelle Wissing, Homer, treasurer.

At the afternoon session the report of the memorial committee was made by the staff, in which deceased members were given tribute, and several deaths were reported during the past year. The resolution committee also read their report, extending thanks to Rushville for accepting the convention on such a short notice, and extended sympathy to the Clarksburg lodge because of the smallpox epidemic, as the convention was originally slated for that place. The reports of the various towns were read, and all lodges were reported to be flourishing, with 3,000 members in this district.

Mrs. Cleo Mattox and Mrs. Margaret Newsom of Carthage were given the certificate of perfection in the unwritten work, having memorized the verbal ritual.

Preceding the work last night, a program was rendered by the Rushville members, which consisted of readings, musical and other entertaining features. Two candidates were initiated and the work was given by a team of the visiting staff.

DELIBERATIONS BEGUN IN W. Z. FOSTER'S CASE

Given to Jury Shortly After 10 a. m. Today When Judge Completes His Instructions

ONLY ONE POINT TO CONSIDER

(By United Press)
St. Joseph, Mich., April 4.—The jury sitting in the trial of Wm. Z. Foster, alleged communist, accused of violating the Michigan syndicalist act, retired shortly after 10 a. m. Deliberations were started immediately after the judge completed his instructions.

Closing arguments were completed before the adjournment of court yesterday.

The judge warned the jurors not to allow extraneous matters, or personal opinions to enter into their deliberations.

"The sole charge against this man," he said, "is that on August 20, 1922, he voluntarily assembled with the communist party, formed to teach and advocate the doctrines of criminal syndicalism."

The court said that it was not disputed that such a convention was held, or that Foster was present at the meeting.

The jurors were told not to "draw any inference from the word 'revolution' mentioned in Foster's writing or alleged to have been mentioned in his speech at Bridgman."

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The annual congregational meeting of the First Presbyterian church will be held Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. There will be election of officers and reports from all departments of the church. This will be preceded by a pitch-in luncheon at 6:30. It is expected that all members of the church and congregation will be present to enjoy the social hour and have part in the business.

PARENTS WILL GET BIRTH CERTIFICATE

Neatly Printed Form to Be Sent by Local Health Officers When Births Are Recorded

PLAN STARTED THIS MONTH

Fewer Deaths Than Births in Rushville During March—Reversed Elsewhere in County

Birth certificates, a neatly printed card, bearing the official seal of the city or county, containing facts regarding the new born infant, will be issued in Rush county from now on, and all babies born in this month will entitle the parents to the legalized form, showing that the birth has been properly recorded.

This plan was first advanced several weeks ago by Dr. E. I. Wooden, county health officer, and the plan was also adopted by Dr. J. M. Lee, city health officer, and the first certificates have just been mailed out, with all births properly recorded since last Sunday.

The certificates, or diploma, serves a two-fold purpose. It gives the parents a card to show that the birth has been reported and to serve as a proof that the physician has fulfilled his mission by reporting the birth to the proper officials.

In the county, outside of the city of Rushville, deaths ran one ahead of births, as during March there were 17 babies born and 18 deaths. Eight cases of contagion were reported during the month in the territory outside of the city, 7 being diphtheria and one of measles.

Only 7 marriage licenses were issued during the month, 6 of them coming on the last two days. Divorces counted 4, in the list of 29 civil suits filed during the month.

In the city of Rushville, births ran away from the number of deaths, as during March 11 babies and only 5 deaths were reported. There also were five cases of contagion reported, including scarlet fever, chicken pox and diphtheria.

Dr. Lee, city health officer, stated that there are cases of whooping cough, and that physicians were reluctant in reporting them, or establishing a quarantine. He sounded a word of warning. Parents are warned to keep their children away from shows, schools, churches and public gatherings if they have the whooping cough. Prosecutions will be made if parents violate the health laws, the (Continued on Page Four)

DEVER IS ELECTED MAYOR OF CHICAGO

Democratic Candidate Wins in Municipal Election With Plurality of 103,748 Over A. C. Leeder

SOCIALIST POLLS 40,841

Morton D. Hull, Republican, Chosen to Succeed J. R. Mann in Congress—Thompson Machine Goes

Chicago, April 4.—William E. Dever, Democrat, was chosen mayor of Chicago to succeed William Hale Thompson in Tuesday's municipal election by a plurality of 103,748.

Morton D. Hull, Republican, was elected congressman from the second district to succeed James R. Mann. He defeated Barrett O'Hara.

With Dever was elected a ticket of city officials that, with the exception of two aldermen, swept out of office the last remnants of the Thompson organization once regarded as the most powerful political machine that ever dominated Chicago and Illinois politics. Thirty eight of fifty aldermen are Democrats.

The election brings about a complete new alignment of political power. The victory firmly establishes the right of George E. Brennan to succeed Roger Sullivan as Democratic "boss" of Chicago. He directed Dever's campaign and united the Democrats behind the ticket.

Dever defeated Arthur C. Leeder, Republican, by a vote of 387,961 to 284,213. William E. Cunneen, Socialist, polled 40,841 votes, nearly double the socialist vote at the last municipal election.

Support of many Thompson backers was openly thrown to Dever and in return they hope for Democratic support in 1934 if Thompson should out his intention of becoming a candidate for United States senator against Medille McGowan.

Four aldermen supporters of the Ka Klux Klan forces, were defeated.

Dever has long been active in Chicago politics. He was born in Boston in 1862 and came to Chicago when 25 years of age, starting as a worker in a tannery. He studied law at nights and was admitted to the bar. He has just been elected in a term of six years as Judge of the superior court when he took a leave of absence to conduct the campaign for mayor. He has two sons.

Mayor Thompson had no comment to make on the results. He received the returns in his office in the city. (Continued on Page Six)

HEAD OF STATE BOARD OF ACCOUNTS TO QUIT

Lawrence Orr of Columbus Is Likely to Be Choice as Successor to Jess Eschbach

OUT OF HARMONY WITH McCRAW

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4.—Jess Eschbach, head of the state board of accounts will resign at the expiration of his term of office May 1. It was learned today. He will become associated with the Lincoln Trust Company of Ft. Wayne or interested in S. W. Strauss and company, investment brokers.

It was said around the state house that Lawrence Orr of Columbus, the likely choice for Eschbach's successor, Ed Farmer, budget clerk is also a candidate.

Eschbach has not been offered reappointment by Governor McCray. Eschbach and McCray have not worked in harmony. The examiner refused to recommend some of the governor's principal measures to the legislature, among them being the $2,000,000 appropriation for completing the reformatory which survived a bitter fight in the legislature and was rescued by the senate after the house had rejected it. Other items of appropriation sought by the governor were bitterly opposed by Eschbach as unnecessary expenditures.

Failure of McCray to offer him reappointment leaves Eschbach free to wind up negotiations with the Strauss people, which have been in progress for some time.

HIDDEN GOLD IN MEXICAN HILLS

American And Mexican Party Begins Search For Treasure, Believed Buried By Bandits

IS AN INDIAN LEGEND

An Old Indian Told Of The Treasure, Which He Said, Was Passed On To Him By His Father

By FREDERICK G. NEUMEIE (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Mexico City, Mexico. (By mail to the United Press).—American and Mexican are prying into the mysteries of "Treasure Mountain."

High up in the Sierra Madre mountains, near the village of Cruz de Piedra, in the State of Mexico, Indians say is buried a large amount of gold and silver—treasure of brigands.

It is believed the treasure, if it exists, was stolen many years ago when gold and silver was carted overland from the Pacific coast to Mexico City. It may be pirate gold, some say.

Headed by Adolfo Sandoval, the little group of Americans and Mexicans have begun efforts to find the missing treasure.

For many years Indians have told stories of the treasure hidden on top of the mountains, but these were believed to be legendary tales, until a few months ago when an old Indian attempted to cash a gold bar at a bank in a nearby city. The banker saw that the gold bar was not of the kind now made and called in the police.

The old Indian told of the treasure which he said was enough to pay off the national debt of Mexico. He claimed that the story of the treasure was passed on to him by his father.

The Indian then led a group of officials on a hunt for the treasure. He told them to start digging at a certain point until they reached an underground marking stone. This they did and the stone was found. Then he told them to dig until they found a cross and the bones of two Indians who, he said were killed by his father when he sealed the cave in which the treasure was placed. This was done the bones were found.

And here the mystery deepened. The next morning the Indian disappeared and, according to story, has not been seen. Attempts were made to find the treasure, but of no avail.

Sandoval and his small group of adventurers, however, believe that the old Indian's tale is true and they are prying into the mysteries of the "Treasure Mountain."

DOLLAR GASOLINE TALK PREPOSTEROUS

Director Of Standard Oil Company On Indiana Speaks To Indianapolis Chamber Of Commerce

SHOWS LACK OF JUDGMENT

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April. 4.—Dollar gasoline talk is preposterous and ridiculous, Robert W. Stewart, Chicago, director of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana said today in a talk to members of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon here today. Stewart is chairman of the board of directors of the Standard Oil company of Indiana.

"The Standard Oil company has been accused of many things, but this is the first time I have ever known it to be accused of lacking ordinary business sense," he said. "Such a price would mean the destruction of the business of the company."

Referring to a recent examination before a senate committee, Stewart declared: "I would have thought that even a senatorial committee would have credited the Standard Oil company with possessing enough business sense to not deliberately wreck its own business."

of Dens For Rich Jewels Ghoul's Robbing Graves

Los Angeles, April. 4.—Activities of grave robbers in past centuries, who looted the pyramids of the Nile of their rich ornaments buried with the Pharaohs, have been duplicated here with the tombs of the Spanish dons and senoritas of early California history.

Ghouls have robbed over fifty tombs in the old Spanish cemetery on Mission Road, a recent investigation revealed.

The old cemetery, now abandoned, is one of the garden spots of the city. Within are groves of eucalyptus, acacia and pepper trees. The vegetation, long untrampled, has given the burial ground a forlorn but still beautiful appearance.

It was the custom to bury the jewels and personal belongings of the dead in early California and the graveyard, containing the remains of hundreds of the wealthy old Spanish families, has become the treasure trove for ghouls. Authorities, who were notified recently of the robbery of the grave of a senorita, member of the old Dominguez family, have bent every effort to jail the perpetrators of the grisly robberies, but so far their efforts have been unavailing.

So many of the graves were opened and robbed that the Spanish colony appropriated a sum of money to employ a night watchman. A checkup revealed fifty graves have been opened in the past 20 years and old residents estimate the loot stolen at $200,000.

The graveyard contains 2,000 dead, all of whom were more or less prominent during the Spanish regime in California.

See the New Corona first!

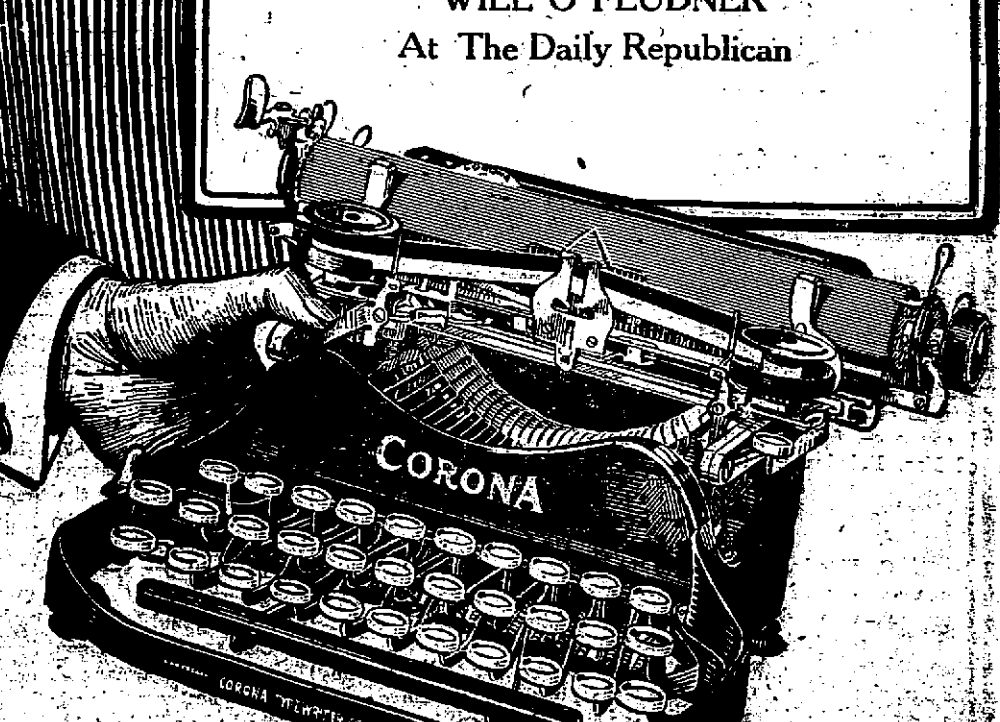

Before you buy a portable typewriter, compare it with Corona in these five important particulars

STEP into our store today and ask to see the New Corona.

Sit down at the keyboard, run your fingers over the keys. See how easy it is to write, even if you have never touched a typewriter before.

Then ask the salesman to show you how Corona fulfills these five essentials of a portable typewriter:

- Completeness: Has every modern improvement, including Automatic Ribbon Reverse and Standard Portable Keyboard, Two-Color Ribbon Back Spacer and Automatic Line Spacer. It is really an office typewriter in portable form.
- Convenience: Weighs less than seven pounds, folds and fits into a neat traveling case. Writes visibly, without cranking one's neck. Takes a No. 10 envelope. Easily holds its title as "The most convenient typewriter in the world."
- Durability: Strongly, simply built. Corona is the only portable typewriter whose design and construction have been tested by sixteen years of service and by 500,000 users. There are more Coronas in use than all the other makes of portables combined.
- Speed: The New Corona is built for swiftness. Its standard portable keyboard, with right and left shift keys, is the simplest of all typewriter keyboards and, therefore, the easiest to memorize and use. The action is sure, and swift, and easy. For the touch system, the keyboard is ideal because the hands never need to leave their original "positioning" on the keyboard.
- Value: No typewriter, at any price can equal the conveniences of the New Corona. No machine, large or small, will do better, cleaner work, nor stand up longer in service—yet the price is still $50 complete with carrying case.

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—
Bible thoughts memorized will prove a precious heritage in after years.

WENT ABOUT DOING:
GOOD:—And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.—Matthew 4: 23.

Street Improvements
Maintenance of unpaved streets in Rushville has always been a vexing problem, not alone because of the cost attached to it, but because gravel and stone streets can not be kept in fit condition for travel the year around regardless of the amount of money spent in the work.

Scores of Rushville residents have felt for some time that the solution of the street improvement problem in Rushville is paving. There is no other way to solve the problem. Annually we spend large sums of money for material and oiling, as well as even larger sums for labor in clearing for the streets. When we get through we have the same old street full of ruts that make driving arduous and unpleasant, not to mention the loss of time entailed by traveling over unpaved streets in the city.

The economy of paved streets has been shown by the brick streets that have been built under the three-mile road law. The upkeep is practically nothing and the only expense to which the city is put is an occasional cleaning, the cost of which is insignificant as compared with the expense of maintaining the gravel and stone streets.

There is said to be a sentiment among the city councilmen favoring the permanent improvement of Rushville streets. If they are given the proper support by persons who are in favor of taking this step in advance in Rushville, there is little doubt but that the council will start a street improvement program.

It appears that the only logical way to go into the enterprise is to work out a program for several years to come, and decide which street or streets shall be first.

Rushville can not expect to have all of its streets paved under the three-mile law. With the exception of a block in South Perkins street, a block in east First street, two blocks in North Perkins street and Third street from Julian to the Pennsylvania railroad, all streets here have been paved under the three mile law, by which the residents of the township participate in the expense. There is a petition pending before the state board of tax commissioners for the paving of parts of Harrison and Eighth streets in the same way.

In the meantime, Rushville may as well prepare for paving some of its own streets because the improvement will have to be made sooner or later.

Same Old Brand
It is reported that Great Britain has renewed negotiations with Turkey for control of the oil lands of Mesopotamia. The British are said to be ready to recognize Turkish political control in that region in return for oil concessions.
Thus we have another instance of the same sort of diplomacy that has been the curse of the old world for centuries, and that is responsible for most of its wars. Lands are particularly pure on a commercial basis that later is the excuse for further bloodshed. The victory gained by the British over the Turks at such an appalling cost in lives and money is not to be used as a guarantee of future peace in that part of the world, but as a club to turn more dollars into British pockets. From the first, Secretary Hughes has insisted upon the open door in Turkey.

—that Americans shall have equal opportunity with other nationals in developing Turkish resources. That is the only fair arrangement and the one most likely to avoid future conflict.

legal to have business houses extend

"TREE" RECEIVES HEARTY RECEPTION SLOGAN "PLAN TO PLANT ANOTHER"

By CHARLES C. DEAM
(Written for United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4.—
The slogan "plan to plant another tree" recently started has happily received a hearty reception. There are so many places that trees, shrubs and vines should be planted, and to know that the people as a whole are beginning to appreciate this great need and are expressing a willingness to plant is indeed gratifying.
This tree planting campaign is not directed to a plan of reforestation.
It is to encourage the planting on a smaller scale where they are needed and are now wanting. No matter where a tree is planted, when it reaches maturity its trunk can be utilized for lumber and its tops for fuel. When a tree grows in the fore-est about all it is worth is the lumber and fuel it produces. When a tree grows along the highway street on in a park, school or church yard it's shade and aesthetic values out-weight its wood value. These triple values should decide every one to plant trees where space is available.

The subject of roadside tree planting has its friends and foes. "Happily most of the objections are now passing and it is believed roadside tree planting will increase, and the sentiment to respect and care for them will grow and become universal.

The movement to plant war memorial trees has met a hearty reception not only by the public but by our legislators who have made laws whereby counties and cities can buy land and plant memorial trees and establish and maintain such memorial parks. Every county should have a memorial park and where steps have not already been taken to secure such a park, some one or some organization should father such a movement.

Why should it not be fashionable to plant family memorial trees?
Let every family plant a tree for every child of the family and dedicate one to each child. These could be planted about the home and could be either forest trees or fruit trees.
To get some notion of the measure of appreciation of such an act, just talk to some one who had a tree planted to his memory.

will be received at the May 1 session. The city will place the oil on the streets as usual, as they have the equipment with which to proceed.

The annual spring Clean-up day was discussed, and the council gave Mayor Thomas the power to designate the days and to make the necessary proclamation whenever he deems it time.

In this connection, Mayor Thomas was also given power to appoint an officer, having police power, to assist Dr. J. M. Lee, city health officer, for any length of time that he might be needed during the year, or to assist in the clean-up campaign.

One hundred members of Rushville council No. 41, R. & S. M. and Rush chapter No. 21, R. A. M., attended the supper and initiation work at the Masonic temple Tuesday evening.

Herbert Graham, state inspector for the chapter and the council, was present and inspected the two Rushville organizations.

One candidate was given the degree in the council's work and two were initiated in the chapter.

The supper was served cafeteria style at six o'clock.

been in existence for a few years,
the need of recognition by the law was seen, and in 1907 the legislative commission of the organization succeeded in placing the organization's need of police powers before the General assembly. The result was the passage of a bill which authorized and empowered the horse thief detective association to file articles of incorporation and permanently organize, under name, for the detection of felons, horse thieves and for mutual protection against criminals.
Police powers were vested in all members and the organization of units to operate in every section of the county was immediately carried out.

At a recent state convention at Logansport, Ind., the detective association passed resolutions which in substance, were as follows:

"We note with alarm the increasing disregard for law and order and the growing tendency to condone lawlessness in various forms.

"Our membership being law abiding and our organization pledged to law enforcement, we reaffirm individual and collective support of our law executives in pursuance of their sworn duty in enforcing—not any particular law, but all law.

"Believing that such disrespect for law and property rights arises out of the administration of our liberal parole laws, we authorize our legislative committee to use its best efforts to secure such enactments of these laws as are necessary to convince a felon that a sentence is a sentence and not a short cut to freedom.

"Believing that the organization has outlived its original purpose in the apprehension of horse thieves, we suggest that the association turn its attention to making their communities better to live in by abolishing crime and taking other measures for the protection of their families."

Excerpts from the legislative bill authorizing the organization of the association, are as follows:

"The association shall have power to call to its aid the peace officers of this state, in accordance with the law, in the pursuit and apprehension of all felons and in reclaiming stolen property and restoring it to the owner or owners thereof.

"County auditors are authorized to issue to each member a certificate of his appointment as constable; provided that such constables have power, to pursue and arrest all criminals against the laws of the state of Indiana and to follow and pursue such criminals throughout the state of Indiana, and in the absence of warrant shall have the power to arrest for such a time as may be necessary to procure a warrant."

Members of the organization are well posted on criminal statutes and are considered good judges of what constitutes a law violation. In their capacities as peace officers and guardians of their respective communities, they act without pay.

PLAYERS DEMAND REPRESENTATION

National Baseball Players' Association Adopt Resolutions Wanting on National Board

NOW HEADED BY K. M. LANDIS

Player's Union Asks That They be Given a Seat with the Three National Board Controllers

Chicago, April 4—Major league baseball players through their "union" have demanded representation on the National commission, the chief ruling body of the game. The commission is now composed of K. M. Landis, national commissioner, Ban Johnson, president of the American League and John Heydler, president of the National League.

The formal demand for representation of players on the commission came just before the opening of the 1934 season, was in the form of a "resolution" adopted by the National Baseball Players Association. It was forwarded to the national commission today by Raymond J. Cannon, Milwaukee attorney, and organized of the Union.

In a letter to the national commission accompanying the resolution the players union executive board stated:

"This demand is not made for the purpose of fomenting trouble, but purely from the conviction that the granting of such a demand would be to the interests of everyone concerned.

"It was thought that such representation was absolutely necessary in order that players might be assured they were being fairly dealt with by the owners.

"You have made the laws and regulations binding upon the ball players without the players being given a voice in the creation of laws governing them. You have set the terms of the players contracts and have passed upon all vital baseball problems which directly affect the players, and rendered decisions without the advice and counsel of the players.

"At a meeting of the executive board of the players association it was decided that the best means to secure co-operation of both players and owners and to make for a peaceable understanding and to insure the best possible baseball for the public, was to have the players represented on your body. In this way it was thought, friction could best be avoided and interests of both sides reconciled."

The national commission was asked to take the matter up for "early consideration."

The resolution asks that the players association be given a "seat, a voice and a vote on the national commission with full power to participate in all of its business and sessions."

SPORT CHATTER

New Port, News, Va. —Curtis Thompson, left handed pitcher of William and Mary college, let Amherst down without a hit or run and won his game 10-0. He got three hits, drove in two runs, scored two and fanned fourteen.

Patterson, N. J.—Unable to remain for a play off of the tie that resulted in the last game the Scullin Steel Soccer team of St. Louis forfeited the American championship to the Patterson football club. Four of the Scullin team are minor league baseball players and they had to report for training.

Pittsburg. —"Tiny" Hewitt, University of Pittsburg football and track star, has been offered an appointment to West Point and probably will accept, it is understood. He plays fullback and was considered one of the best in the east last year.

BREAKS BOWLING RECORD

Milwaukee, Wis., April 4—William Knox of Philadelphia, following a sensational nine game series in the American Bowling Congress tournament here Tuesday, tops the all events mark. He broke all previous world records with a mark of 2,019. Knox and his partner C. Trucke, are fourth in the doubles with 1,302 and Knox is third in the singles with 735.

Babe Ruth as a Writer

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, April 4—Among those great sport celebrities who have turned literatists, Babe Ruth, the swatter, is one of the most prominent. The Bam is not only the high priced man playing ball, but he is the highest salaried man writing baseball, if his terms haven't been reduced since 1921.

Not only that, but the Babe on his 1921 rate for wordage is the highest priced writer in the world.

In the spring of 1921, when Ruth's name began to have commercial value, he was hired by a press association to describe after every home run just how he did it, what kind of a ball it was and all the exciting details.

He signed a contract for a flat sum of $1,000 with a bonus of $5 for every home run. The Bambino hit fifty-four homers and that ran his pay up to $1,270, and the Babe's only contribution all season to his editor, was one wire on the first trip to Boston which read:

"Low fast one outside.
"Babe."

That rate is $254 a word, and it's as good a record in its line as 59 homers.

DIXIE DUST

Fort Worth.—"The Giants are one of the greatest ball clubs of all time. They should have no trouble winning another pennant. Jimmy O'Connell ought to develop into a wonderful star," Kid Gleason, manager of the White Sox said.

Vicksburg, Miss.—Turner Barber, Brooklyn outfielder who has been at his home on account of illness in the family returned to the team and will get into the game today with the Yanks.

Tampa, Fla.—Poor pitching by Brillheart featured yesterday's game with the Tampa Smokers. The Senators won 4-1.

Hot Springs, Ark.—The Pirates broke camp and left for a spring exhibition tour after the regulars defeated the second team 6 to 2.

Greensboro, N. C.—The Athletics arrived here today for a game with Baltimore of the International League. The game scheduled yesterday with Cincinnati was postponed because of rain.

Wilson, N. C.—The Phillies after finally breaking into the win column were determined today to hand the Wilson team a defeat. After losing six successive games the Phillies finally won yesterday over Charleston, 8-0.

El Paso.—The Chicago Cubs were out hit by the American Railway Express team here and were lucky to win 14-13.

Shreveport, La.—The Chicago White Sox and New York Giants play an exhibition game here today after having been prevented from doing their stuff at Fort Worth yesterday by rain.

Augusta, Ga.—President Harding and his party watched the Detroit Tigers defeat the Toronto Internationals here yesterday 9-22.

St. Petersburg, Fla.—In a free hitting game in which the score was 12 to 11, the Indians defeated the Boston Braves here yesterday.

LAYOFF FOR WILLARD
Excelsior Springs, Mo., April 3.—A two weeks layoff has been ordered for Jess Willard, training her for a scheduled fight with Floyd Johnson May 12 in New York. An injured right arm, caused by blows of sparring partners, forced the former champion to rest.

"I'll be in the ring when the fight starts," Willard said.

TO BUILD 45 MILES OF ROAD
Warsaw, April 4.—Contracts will be awarded by the commissioners of Kosciuszko county this month for five more public highways, making 45 in all that have been contracted for and that are to be constructed this summer. The total distance of the 45 roads is 110 miles. All will be of stone and gravel construction. Most of the thoroughfares will be built under the township three mile road law.

FOUR FRENCHMEN KILLED
Berlin, April 4.—Four Frenchmen were killed and four injured today when a French coal train was wrecked near Ludwigshafen in the occupied area.

TIRE CONCERN IS ORGANIZED

Orange Township People Interested In St. Paul Company

The St. Paul Rubber Company, of St. Paul, Ind., was incorporated Tuesday to do business as a corporation in this state, and several people of Orange township, this county, are said to be interested in the concern. The incorporators are William F. O'Conner, Gertrude O'Conner of Akron, O., and Harry Favors of St. Paul. The firm was incorporated at $80,000, and will manufacture automobile tires, according to the plans. A building site has been secured, and plans will be made to push the project to completion as soon as the weather permits.

Mr. O'Conner and Mrs. O'Conner were former residents of St. Paul, and have been interested in tire factory business at Akron.

The Young Ladies Mission Circle of the Main Street Christian church will hold an exchange Saturday, April 7 instead of the 17 as announced yesterday.

Mrs. J. B. Kinsinger and daughter Miss Brenda Kinsinger, will entertain several tables at bridge Friday afternoon at their home at the corner of Tenth and Harrison streets.

The Psi Iota Xi sorority will be entertained tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Paul Phillips in North Perkins street. Miss Frances Bowen will be the assisting hostess.

There will be a business meeting of the Always Present class of the Main Street Christian church held Thursday evening at the home of Miss Alice Chadwick, 906 North Willow street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schobin and children entertained at their country home north of the city Sunday with a prettily appointed dinner party. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. John F. Joyce, Mrs. Mabel Price and daughter Ruth and John Paxton of Sexton.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church will be entertained Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. M. Walker, corner of Fifth and Morgan streets. Mrs. Anna Smith will have charge of the program.

Mrs. H. V. Logan was a charming hostess to the members of the Get-Together club Tuesday afternoon at her home in North Perkins street. The ladies spent a very pleasant afternoon over their needlework and lovely refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

The Knights of Columbus have made arrangements to hold a dance Tuesday evening, April 10, in the Modern Woodmen Hall. The Blue Bird orchestra of Shelbyville will furnish the music for the dance. The committee in charge of the dance is Leo Mullins, John O'Reilly, Charles Schriebe, Edward Gantner, John Conroy and Joe Keating.

Seventy-five couples attended the Easter dance at the Elks dance hall Tuesday evening, including several out-of-town guests. "Duvall Brown's Bammy Boys" of Indianapolis furnished the music and provided entertainment during the evening. The orchestra is known as the stepping syncopators, and the members are also entertainers and jesters. A buffet lunch was served during the dance.

There will be a congregational meeting and pitch-in supper held at the First Presbyterian church tonight. All the ladies are requested to bring sandwiches, enough for their own family, and for one additional, and are requested to bring their own dishes and silverware. The ladies are also requested to have their baskets at the church promptly at six o'clock, so there will be no delay in serving of the supper.

CLUBS WILL AID BAR ASSOCIATION

Women's Organization Will Cooperate With Program Outlined by Indiana Lawyers

AS AGAINST RADICALISM

Said to be Using Educational Methods in American Institutions—Committees Are Named

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4—Women's organizations of Indiana are lining up almost unanimously to cooperate with the program of the Indiana State Bar association to counteract radicalism, by educational work dealing with American institutions. J. A. Van Osdel, of Anderson, Chairman of the Bar Association committee in charge of this work, today announced that his committee has received assurance of support from the Federated Clubs of Indiana, the Indiana League of Women Voters, the State Women's Council and the Indiana Business and Professional Women's club.

These organizations are requested to give the work a place on their program each year. By means of addresses before the women's club, and before the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, Optimists and other business men's organizations, the Bar association hopes to get its campaign before the people of the state.

Many public spirited citizens of Indiana will be asked to address such meetings on such subjects as "Liberty" under the law rather than in spite of it.

Working with Mr. Van Osdel's committee will be a group of 13 well known lawyers of the state, appointed as representing the 13 congressional districts. These men are, first district, Henry B. Walker, Evansville; second, John C. Chaney, Sullivan; third, Wilmer T. Fox, Jeffersonville; fourth, Frank Richmond, Columbus; fifth, John M. Fitzgerald, Terre Haute; sixth, Gath P. Freeman Richmond, seventh, Lewis A. Coleman, Indianapolis; eighth, James J. Moran, Portland; ninth, Lex J. Kirkpatrick, Kokomo; tenth, Jos G. Ibach, Hammond; eleventh, Robert M. Van Atta, Marion; twelfth, George M. Eberhart, Huntington; thirteenth, I. S. Remig, South Bend.

Imperial Palace of Ku Klux Klan Taken Over When Imperial Wizard Obtains Vacating Order

MISREPRESENTATION, HE SAYS

(By United Press)

Atlanta, Ga., April 4—The imperial palace of the Ku Klux Klan was temporarily in the hands of the sheriff today.

With a force of deputies, Sheriff R. Lowry took charge of the "capitol" of the secret organization on orders of the superior court after Imperial Wizard Evans secured a writ vacating a restraining order, granted Col. W. J. Simmons, founder of the Klan.

Evans, in appearing before the court early today, contended that Simmons secured the injunction against the elected officers of the Klan through false representations. The original order was granted following a disagreement between Evans and Simmons over the Kamelia, newly formed woman's secret organization.

A hearing will be held today on whether the injunction should be dismissed permanently.

is said to be approximately $35,000,000. Cook's arrest climaxed a month of hectic experience with law enforcement officers.

Recently the explorer was arrested in a local hotel and accused in federal court of illegally possessing liquor. The following day his wife sued for divorce, charging a young woman was accompanying Cook at the time of his arrest. The decree was granted.

About this time associates of Cook in his oil enterprises rose to his defense and issued various statements in his behalf. In one of these they proclaimed anew that Cook actually discovered the North Pole.

Muncie, Ind., April 4—Muncie, uncle owns a 1,000 gallon still in Kentucky. That's where I learned the art, and believe me, I know how to make good whiskey," said Robert Carver, 29, here today, according to police when he was taken to headquarters charged with operating a blind tiger.

A 100 gallon still in operation, police said, was found at Carver's home.

Carver, his long blonde locks flowing in the breeze as he was taken to the station, sang and played on an ukulele and guitar. He said he was in the Salvation Army at Bloomington, Ill., for six months.

REGISTER YOUR STILLS

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4—Although certain small stills used for experimental purposes in the distillation of water are not classified by the government as stills, U. S. Lesh, attorney general of Indiana, in an opinion submitted to Ed Jackson, secretary of state, advises that they be registered.

Lesh says there can be no prosecutions under the 1923 Indiana law for possession of a still not used for unlawful purposes, but points out that failure to register any such still with the government is prima facie evidence of the owner's intention to use it for unlawful purposes.

Strangleholds And Dark Halls Do Not Have Place On Dance Floors

Indianapolis Policewoman Says That All Classes of Society Would Regret to All Things, if Dances Were Not Regulated by New Laws, Which Are Now Being Enforced

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4—"All classes of society would go back to the same old stranglehold if the dance halls were not closely supervised," said Mrs. Anna Buck Indianapolis, policewoman today when interviewed regarding the new rulings for dances, recently ordered enforced by Chief of Police Rikhoff.

For the colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady.

Are sisters under the skin. According to Mrs. Buck they're all the same. She said that generally speaking, the girl who goes to an exclusive club dance in expensive gown and careful coiffure dances quite as shockingly and sometimes even more so, than the girl who goes to the public dance hall after curling her own hair over a gas jet.

The "fella" out for a good time with his "skiff" cannot afford liquor, which is one of the evils, in some cases, of the dances of the younger smart sets, Mrs. Buck said.

One rule bans "stags" from lounging in the center of the hall, as is the custom here. While waiting for a chance to dance, the young bell-bottomed sheiks congregate in the center of the floor with the dancers gliding or "shaking" around them.

"With nothing to do but wait, the custom has been to 'light up' which has resulted in even some of the better dances resembling the battle of Verdun, so far as smoke and gas are concerned," Mrs. Buck said. All this goes, under the new set of rules.

Another popular form of amusement is hit at death blow. Of late many if not most of the dances, have been conducted with barely enough light for the dancers to keep from colliding.

The new rules specifically clamp down on shadow and moonlight dancing.

Even when the halls were dimly lighted, at times the lights would unexpectedly be "doused" entirely, accompanied by shrieks of hilarity. This is now altogether gone, except for "accidents."

Chief Rikhoff has also announced that the liquor laws will be strictly enforced.

It has been whispered that many high school dances, toward the close, have not resembled dances so much as spontaneous drinking sprees.

"Yes, we receive many complaints about hip-pocket parties, said Mrs. Buck.

Another rule bans "sheiks" and "shebas" under eighteen years from the dance halls.

The Bolero

The bolero silhouette is used for three-piece suits as well as for dresses. A short bolero jacket shows an underwaist of brilliant silk with long sleeves and a low waistline. Longer lines make of the bolero the box coat shown with many spring suits. A plain, pleated or wrap-around skirt accompanies these short coats. Skirts, though not so long as predicted, are nearly knee-length for daytime wear.

GEORGE DALE INDICTED

Muncie, Ind., April 4—Learning that he was wanted on a grand jury indictment, charging him with criminal libel, George Dale, Muncie publisher, has surrendered to Sheriff Hoffman and at the same time provided bond. The charge is based on an article appearing in Dale's local paper last January speaking of George Roger, Muncie grocer, as a draft dodger. Dale is slated to appear for trial next Monday on another indictment charging violation of the liquor law.

TRY A WANT AD

Churches Say It Pays to Advertise

A committee of churchmen, studying the problem of how to increase interest in church work, adopted a report urging newspaper advertising.

Among other things, the report says:

"It pays in dollars to advertise. One metropolitan church increased its loose collections to $22,000 in two years, certain other smaller churches showing a proportionate increase.

"Advertising lifts the standard of preaching and service in order to make good and come up to the advertising.

"Magazines spend large sums in taking advertisements in the daily newspapers. It pays or they would not do it.

"Advertising must be consecutive, persistent, prepared for, distinctive. If a minister does not know how to advertise, let him learn how or let him get the help of an advertising man."

Afternoon daily newspaper advertising is the easiest, least expensive and most effective way of reaching the people anywhere at any time.

SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.

BUILDING DOUBLE THAT OF LAST YEAR

Activities in Indianapolis Twice as Great, Increase Amounting to 1,000,000 a Month

BUSINESS IS IMPROVING

Bank Clearings, Barometer of General Conditions, Show an Increase of Thirty Per Cent

Indianapolis, April 4.—Building activities in this city are twice as great as a year ago, the increase for each month of this year exceeding by more than $1,000,000 the work of a year ago. Another indication of the era of prosperity is the bank clearings which show a thirty percent increase over last year.

Business generally continues to show improvement, with the bank clearing standing as a barometer of general conditions, while the building activities show a widespread condition inasmuch as few big buildings are now under way. For the first three months of this year, building permits show an expenditure of $7,515,634 for construction work now under way as compared with $3,726,278 last year. Bank clearings total $246,957,000 for January, February and March as compared with $187,463,000 for the opening quarter of 1922.

The monthly comparison of these two gauges follows:

Building permits—January, 1922, $553,253; 1923, $2,030,922; February, 1922, $1,171,134; 1923, $2,462,956; March, 1922, $2,001,891; 1923, $3,021,756.

Bank clearings—January, 1922, $66,425,000; 1923, $93,224,000; February, 1922, $54,765,000; 1923, $7,400,000; March 1922, $66,273,000; 1923, $81,324,000.

A Multitude of Women Recommend It

The strongest recommendation possible for any medicine to have is the sound testimony borne by the vast multitudes of women who have used it. It has been proved that 98 out of every 100 women once ill with ailments that caused suffering and despair have been restored to the joys of health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This marvelous record shows its power over the ills of women, and the letters of recommendation we are continually publishing in this paper should induce every ailing woman to try it.

HARDING MAY HAVE TO RAISE SUGAR TARIFF

President Can Not Lower Tariff Simply Because Retail Sugar Prices Are Too High

PRESENT DUTY IS 1.72 CENTS

Washington, April 4.—Belief that President Harding as a result of the tariff commission's investigation into sugar prices may be forced to raise rather than lower the sugar tariff, was expressed here today by government experts.

This peculiar situation arises from the inflexibility of the "flexible" provisions of the Fordney-McCumber tariff act under which the probe is being conducted and from the fact that the president cannot lower the tariff simply because retail sugar prices are high. He can change the duty only when the commission finds that production costs at home or abroad have been changed and there is every indication now that the commission will be forced to recommend that on the cost of production basis the sugar tariff rates in reality should be increased.

Under the law, the commission's inquiry is limited strictly to ascertaining facts about the relative costs of production here and abroad to the exclusion of all else. Its final recommendations must propose a duty which would equalize costs.

The present duty of 1.72 cents per pound on Cuban sugar is founded on a report rendered by the commission to congress three years ago, holding that 1.72 cents per pound measured the "spread" between production costs in the two countries.

DESCENDANTS TO ORGANIZE

To Advance Claims On Bogardus And Wikoff Lands In New York

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4.—All descendants of Anneke Jans Bogardus Edwards and Pieter Chae on Wikoff who want a slice of $1,100,000,000 worth of lower Manhattan will be formed into a national association to advance their claims, according to plans outlined today by Thomas B. Wikoff secretary of the descendants.

Wikoff called a meeting of the descendants here April 14 to map out a course of action to obtain that part of lower New York occupied by the Woolworth building and other skyscrapers which, they contend originally belonged to the Dutch colonial freeholders.

The lands have been definitely located, Wikoff said, their boundary lines established, and the present streets and numbers known.

TO COMPLETE ZR-1 THE FIRST OF JULY

Huge Airship May Eventually Fly To North And South Poles And Around The World

ONE OF THE WORLD WONDERS

Giant Ship Will Have A Cruising Radius Of 5,000 Miles And Will Carry Ten Tons Gasoline

Philadelphia, April 4.—The mammoth airship ZR-1 under piecemeal construction at the Philadelphia Navy Yard and at Lakehurst, N. J., will probably be ready for flight by July 1.

The huge ship may eventually fly to the North and South Poles and around the world according to Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the wonders of the world.

The dirigible is now 75 per cent complete, according to Commander R. Weyerbacher, who is in charge of construction.

The ship will be 680 feet long (more than 100 feet longer than the height of the Washington Monument) and it will be 79 feet in diameter. Its gas bag is divided into 18 compartments and these will hold 2,000,000 feet of non-inflammable helium gas. The gas bag is made of "goldbeaters skin" fashioned from the intestines of cattle. The frame is duraluminum.

With this tremendous "lifting power" to keep the ZR-1 aloft, six 300-horse-power engines will drive it through the air. Tests of the six cylinder engines have been satisfactory.

The giant ship will have a cruising radius of 5,000 miles and will be able to carry ten tons of gasoline. A special composition applied to all parts of the air ship will, it is believed, help reduce air frictional resistance.

For the first few months after its completion, the ZR-1 will make only comparatively short flights. It will then be given its head for a flight across the Atlantic with a crew of twenty.

Another great air ship will be seen floating over the country before the end of summer as a sister dirigible the ZR-3 is being built at the Bodensee Works in South Germany for the United States. This ship will be completed about the first of May.

A trial flight for the ZR-3 over the Alps is scheduled for May 1. The German built dirigible will be inspected by Ambassador Houghton.

From Berlin the ZR-3 manned by a German crew but flying the American flag will head for Chicago. Members of the American inspection commission will be aboard the ship as guests.

The ceremony of transference to the American government will take place in Chicago.

By FRAZER EDWARDS
(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Washington, April 4.—An old "wet and dry" fight is now looming up as the real bone of contention in the next Democratic convention.

An increasing number of Democratic politicians, who a few months ago shivered at the mere suggestion of a wet plank are giving more and more consideration to the question of inserting a declaration for modification of the Volstead act in the party's platform.

Their strategy is based on the belief that victory can be won by a combination of the solid south with the thickly populated states of the east where "wet" sentiment refuses to die out.

Beyond all doubt the wet movement within the Democratic party will cause Wm. Jennings Bryan as leader of the dries to make another of his great fights for a "bone dry" platform.

SUPERSTITIOUS THIEF

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4.—Police today were looking for the superstitious thief who held up Herman Robinson, Standard Oil filling station attendant, and robbed the station of $80. Although he did not despise paper money and dollars and quarters, he refused to take five silver dollars, tossing them back in the cash register drawer.

BRITISH EXPONENT TO CALL UPON WILSON

To Ask Former President If Some Spent For Present Society Of Nations May Not Be Found

WANTS U. S. TO ENTER LEAGUE

New York, April 4.—Lord Robert Cecil, British exponent of the league of nations, will call upon Woodrow Wilson, its first sponsor in Washington, next week and ask the former president if some substitute or modified form of the present society of nations may not be found that will permit the United States to enter.

"I have not come to this country to urge America's participation in the league," Cecil said in an exclusive interview with the United Press, "but rather to explain to the people of the United States what conditions in Europe are today and ask what they propose to do about it."

Lord Robert said however he would carry to Wilson most favorable reports of the present league's accomplishments, of which he considers the rehabilitation of Austria by far most important. Cecil will talk with the former president at the latter's S. street home concerning the impossibility of continued American isolation.

If I Could Saw and Nail—

If I were a bit handy with tools, I would take advantage of the demand for bird houses. This would be simply a matter of letting people know where to have them made.

Then there would be dog houses, flower boxes, and many other things to be made with boards and nails—enough to make an all-year demand.

With the help of The Daily Republican Want Ads I could tell the people of Rushville what I could do. Otherwise how would they know about me? They wouldn't!

Start Them Right Raise More Chicks

You can prevent the big losses due to weakness and disease and give your chicks the quick getaway that produces early broilers and layers by feeding the genuine and only

Conkey's

THE ORIGINAL
Buttermilk Starting Feed

Conkey's is different—no dried buttermilk is ever used. We use Semi-Solid Buttermilk only, combining it with the other ingredients in the original and successful Conkey way.

Conkey's is low in fibre and just right in protein. Too much fibre injures and too much protein overtaxes. Conkey has made a study of the little chick for years, and in Conkey's Buttermilk Starting Feed has perfected the one really successful feed for little chicks from 48 hours to 8 weeks of age.

Conkey's also puts an edge to the appetite, while the lactic acid has a tonic effect—helping to prevent White Diarrhea.

Try It and You'll Never be Without It

Conkey's is used in enormous quantities by successful poultrymen all over the country, and recommended in highest terms.

Ganna Says Good-Bye to Harold

This picture of Ganna Walska McCormick was taken just as she sailed on the S. S. Paris for France, waving au revoir to her husband, Harold F. McCormick, sitting on a pile of boxes on the pier at New York.

THE HOME GARDEN

IF A GARDENER, DON'T BE A DUB

Too many gardeners still follow the practice of buying and sowing radish, sweet corn or aster seed, instead of buying, sowing and enjoying the delight of harvesting golden bantam corn, scarlet globe radishes and American Beauty or ostrich feather asters. In other words, they stopped learning when they knew how to sow and cultivate a crop and remain content in complete ignorance of the finer points of the gardening game. There is some excuse for a man settling down to be a dub golfer, for it is often hopeless to beat 100. But there is no reason except lazy-mindedness for remaining a dub gardener.

The business of producing and marketing garden seeds is not what it used to be. Catalogues no longer depict watermelons that fill a hayrick and beans six feet long. Our memories of such things are childhood recollections. Nowadays a seedsman prides himself on picturing accurately the characteristics of the vegetables and flowers his seeds will grow, and the more exact his descriptions are the more he is pleased.

Names have been standardized to a large extent and with every class of vegetable certain well-fixed varieties, having definite and distinctive merits, have become known throughout the country each for a certain purpose. To become familiar with these is no harder than reading a treatise on golf and the knowledge one acquires is far more valuable and far rarer. A gardener who knows all about the various standard flowers and vegetables can hold a suburban gathering enthralled for hours.

Every year some advance is registered in the improvement of our vegetable strains, either in developing disease resistance or better flavor.

What is the biggest variety of head lettuce? New York or Wonderful. It produces cabbage-heads weighing three pounds and stands hot weather well. Sow it for a main crop in ground rich enough where you can supply water, feed it regularly with nitrate and you will make your neighbors envious.

There is always a race in every neighborhood to produce the earliest peas. What is the earliest variety? It is Alaska, which matures in 45 days, but has smooth-seeded peas, not so sweet as the wrinkled kind. It stands cold, wet ground, however, better. If harvested young they are delicious. American Wonder is the earliest wrinkled pea, maturing in 55 days, closely followed by Laxtonian and Little Marvel. The largest podded pea is a tall variety, Quite Content, which Henry T. Finck, author of "Gardening With Brains," says is the finest of all. Little Marvel is excellent for the home garden, because it remains tender so long on the vine.

These are a few of the facts about standard varieties which the inquiring gardener gets to know, and which make his harvest so much more enjoyable because he knows he is playing at the top of the garden game, and enjoying the finest quality of food possible to have on this earth.

Deal where you are known, you save time, trouble and money by trading where you are known.

If your grocer knows your likes and dislikes he can serve you as you can't be served by the store where you are just a "purchaser." Most women today are too busy to spend their time in the little details of shopping every time they need some groceries, too intelligent to break into their day's work by personally carrying home their groceries.

Our service to you is more than just "selling groceries"—its standing back of them. You take no chances when you buy from us. We have some gallon cherries, full pack and fine quality that are a real bargain at our price of $1.25.

In spite of the fact that all laundry soaps have advanced, considerably in price we still offer well known brands of brown soap at 3 cakes for 10c and good white soap at 6 cakes for 25c.

If you haven't tried LOYALTY flour, you are missing the salvation so many of our lady customers have found in its use. It is every purpose flour—good for everything you use flour for.

Captain's Mess Boy's Dream Realized Spends a Cool Million (Marks) In a Day

By M. D. TRACY
U. S. Star Correspondent

San Francisco, April 4—Most boys and girls in America at some time have sat down behind the barn or in the tradesman's entrance to the apartment house or somewhere and said:

"Wish I had a million dollars—just go to the show and buy candy and all everyone knows how it goes. And over in Germany boys and girls aren't much different down deep in their hearts than they are in America, perhaps."

With this exception—

Reinhardt Schmidt, aged 14, of Hamburg, Germany, captain's mess boy on the German steamer Hans Hensoth, has had his wish come true. When he was back in Germany he dreamed his wishing—only, of course, he wished for marks instead of dollars. When he came to San Francisco, and out stepped a fairy or something and all of a sudden young Reinhardt found himself in the midst of riches.

A newspaper reporter found Reinhardt interesting. He told his editor, and as a result a girl reporter was assigned to give Reinhardt one memorable day.

The lad was running around the decks of the big freighter which had been his home for months, when the mate stopped him and told him that for the day he was to have shore leave and be the guest of a fairy-lady who awaited at the gang-plank.

Bewildered but anxious for just one taste of real fun, he eagerly accepted. And the day started. Reinhardt was to do as he pleased. And the lady would foot the bill.

It started with candy at the ferry building.

Then a ride through the city in a luxurious sedan—the likes of which Reinhardt had never seen.

Then to a store for a pair of good American shoes to replace the wooden ones he wore. Then lunch at the city's most fashionable hotel—the first fruit he had tasted for eight months was served him in a fruit-cocktail; oxtail soup, chicken pie, apple pie with ice cream, and quantities of milk.

"I drink no alcohol," he announced in German. "But milk, at home it is so expensive." He revealed in bottles of it.

Then a trip to the top of the tallest building in the city and next out to the beach to the roller-coaster, the merry-go-round and all the other wonders.

Reinhardt was gaining his poise and he hardly could wait for each successive thrill.

"Powder River—letter buck," he shouted in his funny English as he mounted a pony on the merry-go-round and waved his cap, cowboy fashion.

No satisfactory explanation could be secured as to where he picked up the phrase, but it was good evidence that somewhere back in the days of the war, he had met someone who knew something of the Ninety-First division which crashed through the Argonne forest with that battle-cry.

A bystander passed $5 into his hand.

"Ach I'll send that to my mother," he confided to his fairy-godmother, in Germany.

Evening came, and dinner and then a visit to a vaudeville show.

Late at night Reinhardt was returned to his shipmates aboard the steamer.

"Ach very fine," he exclaimed for the hundredth time as he sat on a coil of rope and sailors gathered around him to hear the story of how the fairy fulfilled his dreams.

Out came a pencil and a piece of paper. For a moment he figured, while the lady looked on.

In marks, his figures showed he had spent that day 1,003,000.

WHISKEY RING ALLEGED

Muncie, Ind., April 4.—Laacy Stinneth, colored hotel porter is under arrest charged with violating the liquor law and police declare he is a member of a big whiskey ring active throughout eastern Indiana. No less than twenty five arrests it is said, will follow disclosures he is alleged to have made.

HEAVY TRAFFIC IS PREDICTION

Only a Few Exceptions and the Lincoln Highway is in Good Shape From Coast to Coast

A DISTANCE OF 3300 MILES

Sixty Thousand Automobiles Are Expected to Make The Trip During The Summer Season

Detroit, Mich., April 4—Sixty thousand automobiles will travel from coast-to-coast over the Lincoln Highway during the coming summer season, according to an estimate made today by A. F. Bement, vice president of the Lincoln Highway Association.

This means that about 235,000 persons will travel over the highway between April 20 and October 25 as compared to about half that number for last season.

Bement bases his prediction on the country's increased prosperity and the great improvement in the roads throughout the country, he said.

"With the exception of a few places the 3,300 miles of Lincoln highway is in excellent condition, he declared. In commenting on the condition of the highway, he said:

"From New York to 45 miles west of the Mississippi river the road is paved and in good condition except for a short stretch between Pittsburg and East Liverpool, Ohio.

"There are a few rough stretches in Ohio. One is between Mansfield and Bucyrus and the other between Upper Sandusky and Gomer. The road from Gomer across Indiana and Illinois is in good condition.

"For 300 miles from Chicago to Omaha west the road is mostly gravel. There is about 100 miles of graded dirt in separated which is bad when wet. About 500 miles across Nebraska to Cheyenne the road is mostly fine-gravel. There is a rough stretch east of Rock Springs and another one west of Green River.

"The only difficulty likely to be encountered by tourists is between Salt Lake City and Ely, Nevada, on the Great Salt Lake desert, a distance of 17 miles which is bad when wet.

"The route across Nevada will be in good condition as much new work will be completed in another week. The road is rough east and west of Austin, Nev., and just east of Eureka, Nev.

"The road from Reno over the summit of the Sierras will open May 15. From Summit to Oakland, Calif. the road is nearly all paved with concrete."

BITS OF PROSPERITY FROM ALL OVER INDIANA

South Bend, Ind., April 4—South Bend's downtown business district is to enjoy a building boom this year. Two new stores and office buildings are to be erected at a cost of $1,500,000. The new structures include a Masonic temple to cost $750,000, a Knights of Columbus home to cost $350,000, and some smaller buildings, costing $250,000.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4—Work started this week on the new Y. W. C. A. dormitory, which is to be erected near the downtown district at a cost of approximately $200,000 and is planned to accommodate 115 girls.

New Palestine, Ind., April 4—The new $10,000 industrial plant of the Indianapolis Steel Products company will be completed within a month, giving employment to 100 or more men as soon as operations get under way. The company was organized by John R. Crawford, formerly president of the Terre Haute National Bank, who died recently. His plans are being carried out by Walter Bledsoe of Terre Haute, and W. M. Lewis of Indianapolis.

Anderson, Ind., April 4—Factories here are employing 7,500 persons, and some are facing a labor shortage with virtually every plant in the city now operating in full force. The Remy Electric plant has 2,922 men on its payroll, and expects to increase the force within a few weeks. Other plants also report increased forces and enlarged payrolls.

Indianapolis, April 4—The rapidity in the development of the business of the Barbasol Company since its organization three years ago had made it necessary for the company to move into more extensive quarters, and Frank Shields, president and founder, says he is considering establishing a distribution plant in New York to care for eastern business.

BUILDING MEN STRIKE

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4.—Construction work on many large buildings was tied up today in Indianapolis pending the outcome of strikes in six building trade unions as the result of failure of employees to sign new contracts. Old contracts expired Sunday night. The strikers include plasterers, painters, electricians, ironworkers, leather and hoisting engineers.

LOCAL FARMER HAD STOCK ON THE MARKET

Arlington, New Salem and Rushville Shippers Consigned to Producers Commission Firm

101 CARLOADS WERE HAULED

Chicago, April 4.—Leroy Catt, of Arlington, Ind., was on the Indianapolis market last week with a mixed carload of cattle and hogs, and Harvey Reed, of Rushville, Ind., and Arthur Browning of New Salem, Ind., were also on the Indianapolis market with a carload of hogs, both cars being consigned to the Indianapolis Producers Commission Association. Good prices were obtained. Of 101 carloads handled at Indianapolis market, the Producers sold 33 cars.

The Indianapolis Producers Commission Association is a branch of the National Live Stock Producers Association, the others being located at National Stock Yards, (St. Louis market), Buffalo, Chicago, Kansas City, Peoria and Ft. Worth. The Indianapolis Producers Commission Association is owned by the farmers who ship live stock to it and has been in operation less than a year, but last week sold 200 carloads of live stock compared with 70 cars for the next largest. The annual meeting will be held in May and the members will receive checks for their share of the profits, pro-rata to the amount of the shipments they have sent in. By means of the Indianapolis Producers Commission Association live stock producers can market to the same advantage whether by small consignment, by truck, or by carload.

"MAGPIE" TO BE ISSUED THIS YEAR

Senior Class Of Milroy High School Will Publish Another Annual. It Is Announced

ONE LAST YEAR COMPLIMENTED

General Supervision Will Be Under Faculty Advisor, T. E. Coffin—Staff Is Announced

An enlarged special edition of the "Magpie" will again be issued by the graduating class of Milroy high school this year. This publication, which will be in the nature of an annual will consist of sixteen pages of four thirteen-inch columns each.

In addition to the special features which will not be made public until the date of publication, the paper will contain photos and write-ups of seniors and faculty members, as well as group pictures.

The "Senior Magpie" published a year ago by the class of 1922 received liberal praise from the public, and the present staff is hoping to improve upon the initial effort. The engraving is being done by Indianapolis engraving company, while the Collier Studio of Rushville is doing the photographic work. It is probable that the printing will be done by the Hagen Newspaper Syndicate of Milroy. The general supervision will be under the faculty advisor, Theron E. Coffin, of the English department. The publication date is May 16.

The staff is:
Editor-in-chief—Howard Morgan.
Associate Editor—Bertha Glisson.
Writeup Editor—Vigene Swain.
Business Manager—Marshall Rich-ey.

Circulation Manager—Robert Tansel.

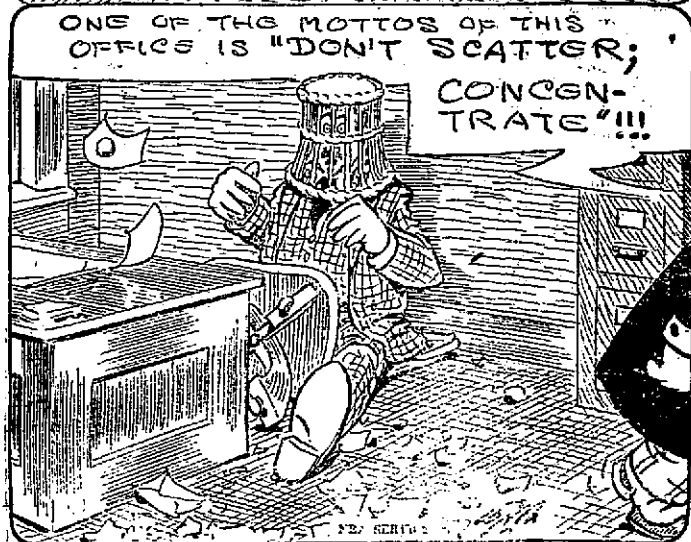

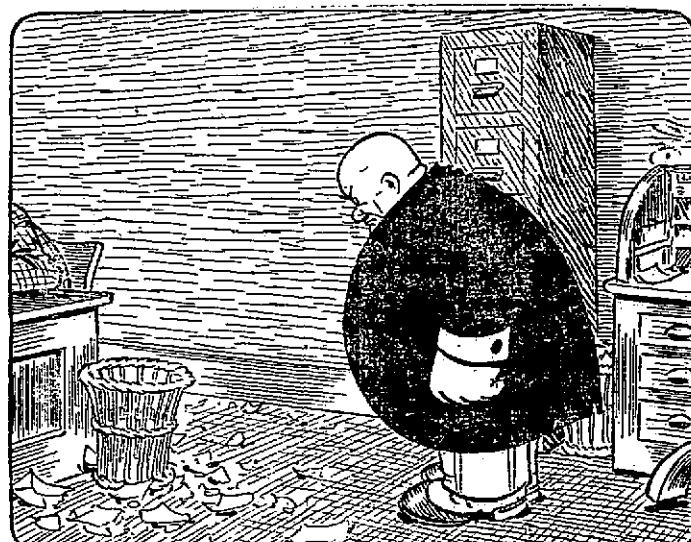

Assistant Circulation Manager—Helen Mills.
Athletic Editor—Maurice Cowan.
Feature Editor—George Rardin.
Valedictory—Howard Morgan.
Class Poem—Vigene Swain.
Class History—Helen Mills.
Class Will—George Rardin.
Class Prophecy—Marshall Rich-ey.

FLETCHER RECEIVED IN SOUTH AMERICA

Henry P. Fletcher, is Given Big Ovation at Pan-American Conference, by the Chileans

HEADS U. S. DELEGATES

(By United Press)

Santiago, Chile, April 4.—The welcome accorded to Henry P. Fletcher, head of the American delegation to the Pan-American conference, and his associates who are here to attend the sessions which opened here March 25 attests to the high esteem in which Fletcher is held by the Chileans and to his popularity in this country.

While it might be going too far to state that an American diplomat is a "chilenophile" or a "—phile" of any sort, the Chilean people entertain the sincere belief that Fletcher has a keen sympathetic understanding of their aims and interests, and his appointment to lead the American delegates was enthusiastically received here.

While it was considered that the popularity of Fletcher must have had some bearing in his selection, those interested in conference events are pleased that the chief American delegate is one who not only possesses a wide knowledge of Latin-American affairs through years of residence and diplomatic service, but that he has a perfect command of Spanish.

Dr. Leo S. Rowe, director-general of the Pan-American Union, another American delegate, and probably one of the most expert Americans where South American affairs is concerned is also well known and popular in Chile, while the other American delegates are at least known here by reputation for their achievements at home.
